Walking in the West End

One of the great joys of living in our neighborhood is the way we really enjoy being pedestrians. And not in a "pedestrian" way, mind you. So much of the beauty that is the West End cannot be appreciated from the seat of a car. There's the detail of the landscaping and gardening so many of you do. And the carpentry work in the housing styles: Queen Anne (Victorian doo-dad lite), Colonial Revival (think pediment over the door), and Craftsman (think one-story cozy). This neighborhood will embrace you if you let it envelop you along a sidewalk. To keep that feeling alive, those of us with sidewalk frontage need to keep our sidewalks clear of obstruction. In my case it's pruning a Vinca that wants to reach out and grab ankles. For others, it's overhanging limbs and branches that need to be pared back. For many, it's making sure your property's retaining wall is kept tidy and repaired. Please keep our pedestrian lifestyle safe and enjoyable by keeping your sidewalk areas obstacle-free. Our togetherness means it's not safe to have to walk into the street to avoid problem sidewalks. Help us keep West End walks happy walks.
